

Shaping the future
of animal health

The Softer Side of Steroids: HCA in the Treatment of Skin and Ear Disease”

When:

THURSDAY
APRIL 29, 2021
9:00-10:30 p.m. [EST]

Speaker:

Dr. Douglas J. DeBoer DVM, DACVD

Program:

- Presentation – 1 hour
- Question Period – 30 min.

Agenda:

- Current view of pathogenesis of Atopic Dermatitis
- Why topical corticosteroids?
- Defining “soft” steroids and their benefits
- Explain the difference of HCA
- Topical steroids for skin disease
- How is HCA used for Atopic Dermatitis
- Topical steroids in Otitis Externa
- Ways to improve owner compliance
- How is HCA used for Otitis Externa
- “Soft” Steroids: Summary

Dr. Douglas J. DeBoer DVM, DACVD

Register Now

After registering for the webinar, please expect to receive a confirmation email message. A reminder email message will be sent both one day and one hour before the event is scheduled to begin.

This presentation is a live event and will not be recorded for future CE accreditation.

The ABVMA has approved this presentation for 1 hour of CE credit. This presentation is RACE approved for 1 hour of continuing education credit. This presentation is pending approval for 1 hour of continuing education credit from other provincial associations. Attendees will receive an email communication to document the CE credit for all programs that grant approval, no earlier than 5-7 business days after the event.